Northeast Regional Adult Deafblind Training

Field workers and Community Based Rehabilitation (CBR) workers under the project Sparsh Deafblind from Sikkim Divyang Sahayata Samiti (SDSS) participated in a regional network meeting organized by the Deafblind Regional Centre (DbRC) ShishuSarothei with support from Sense International India, in Guwahati, Assam from 27th to 29th September, 2021.

It was attended by persons with deafblindness, parents, and special educators from the states of Assam, Meghalaya, Sikkim, and Tripura. The three-day meet included discussions related to the empowerment of persons with deafblindness. Around 50 participant members attended the regional meet, comprising members from the Udaan Network of Adults with Deafblindness, the Prayaas Network of Parents, the AbhiPrerna Network of Special Educators, and the family members of children with deafblindness. Adults with deafblindness discussed the challenges they faced due to the Covid-19 pandemic ranging from issues related to healthcare, difficulties in communication, lack of accessible information about Coronavirus, financial constraints, and barriers in accessing online education among other issues.

Ketaki Bardalai, the Executive Director of ShishuSarothei remarked that ShishuSarothei had been working extensively in awareness-raising, legal counselling, litigation services, and that we need to raise our voices at different levels and look for opportunities to strengthen the network of young adults with deafblindness and their caregivers. The team at ShishuSarothe has also been building the capacity of the northeast region and increasing their reach through the training conducted by the Sparsh Program of Deafblind Resource Centre which started in 2015. Akhil Paul, founder and director of Sense International India (SII), extended his wishes to everyone and emphasized the need to work towards building a future for children with deafblindness and to be aware of all the policies and strategies for supporting them.

Government officials from various departments including Debeshwar Borah (State Commissioner for the Persons with Disabilities) and Ram Kishore Sharma (Assistant Director, Employment of the National Career Service Centre for Differently-Abled) were also present. Borah commented on the challenges faced by persons with disabilities and talked about the need to establish a joint venture by the institution with other organizations. Stressing on the need for a strong network for persons with deafblindness, Sharma said, “Our team at the National Career Service Centre for Differently Abled, Guwahati, provides support through scholarships and certificates and develop their expertise and train them in specific areas based on their skill sets.”

The three-day training involved discussions on issues related to understanding the rights of persons with deafblindness, roles and responsibilities of regional local networks, and ways to strengthen the network. Adults with deafblindness also gained hands-on experience through their exposure visit to Vocational Rehabilitation Centre, Guwahati. SDSS, as a partner of SII, represented the state of Sikkim at the meet and participated in the training.

6th Sikkim Run 2021

The sixth edition of the Sikkim state run happened on 31st October 2021, organised by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Sikkim. The event was in collaboration with Service to Mankind Group (a local NGO) and its theme was “No voter to be left Behind”. Many of the staff and people with disabilities associated with Sikkim Divyang Sahayata Samiti (SDSS) participated in the run. Apart from that, more than 400 runners had participated in the marathon which included runners from all over Sikkim, Darjeeling, Kurseong, Uttarakhand, Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Goa, Kolkata, Mumbai, West Bengal, Madhya Pradesh and Nepal. Justice A.P Subba, Chairperson, Law

Commission and Lokayukta, graced the event as the Chief Guest, in the presence of Ms. Pema Laden Lama (Joint CEO), Mr. Kiran Rasaily (Retired Secretary) and Padma Shree awardee, Ms. Draupadi Ghimiray (State Icon and founder of SDSS).

During her speech, Ms. Pema Laden Lama (Joint CEO), informed the gathering about the various activities which would be undertaken during the Special Summary Revision 2022 starting from 1st Nov 2021 to 30th Nov 2021. She urged all the new, eligible voters to register themselves. Lastly, the winners and participants of the marathon were felicitated with cash prizes and medals during the award distribution ceremony by the Chief Guest. The event was a grand success with participants informing the media that they would be looking forward to such events in the future.

One Day Training on Accessible Elections

Sikkim Divyang Sahayata Samiti (SDSS) organised a one-day training program on ‘Accessible Elections for Persons with Disabilities (PwDs)’ was held on 08.10.21 as an initiative by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Sikkim. The training aimed for the proper functioning of Electoral Rolls and the facilitation of accessible elections for the local persons with disabilities of Sikkim. Ms. Pema Laden Lama (Joint CEO) of the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Sikkim talked about the PwD voter app which allows PwDs to fill all forms related to the summary revision of electoral rolls. Ms. Lama emphasised that they want to act in line with the inclusive initiatives taken by the Election Commission of India and build a partnership with PwDs of Sikkim. She believes that the PwDs involved in this training will further take the message forward to their communities and help generate awareness about the same, this way no voter would be left behind. 18-year-old Mr Bimal Subba, associated with SDSS, was the first PwDb voter to get registered.

Ms. Draupadi Ghimiray (Founder, SDSS, Padmashree Awardee) talked about the work SDSS as done in the field of disability and how it has had door to door services to reach PwDs living in the remotest areas of Sikkim. Mr. Ramesh Periwal (Working President of finance, SDSS) mentioned in his speech that SDSS has recommended ways to make elections in Sikkim more accessible. One active suggestion by SDSS for the same was to make accessible voting booths specifically for PwDs in various towns of Sikkim like Gangtok, Singtam, Jorethang, etc. so it becomes easier for the local PwDs to access them. The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Sikkim has put forward these suggestions to the Election Commission of India in New Delhi.

Mr. Periwal has been associated with SDSS for 22 years, is one of its founding members and has been working with other NGOs as well. During the Covid-19 pandemic too, Mr. Periwal worked to make medical aid accessible to all PwDs in Sikkim. For his humanitarian efforts, with a recommendation from SDSS, Mr. Periwal has been conferred with an Honorary Doctorate by the World Human Rights Protection Commission (WHRPC) of India in New Delhi on 26th September 2021.

Sikkim State Level Online Sensitisation Training on Deafblindness for Medical and Paramedical Professionals

Sikkim Divyang Sahayata Samiti (SDSS), supported by Sense International India (SII), Ahmedabad and funded by the H. T. Parekh Foundation, organized a Sikkim State Level Online Sensitisation Training of Deafblindness at Central Referral Hospital, Sikkim Manipal University on 2nd November 2021. Medical and paramedical professionals, government officials and health and rehabilitation professionals from SDSS were amongst the many participants in this online training session. The session was conducted by SII's Training Head, Ms. Rosa Wahlang and the Head of Capacity Building, Mr. Sachin Rizal.

Background: Deafblindness is a condition in which a person may have a combination of hearing and visual impairments causing severe communication, developmental, psycho-social, emotional and educational needs. Children with Deafblindness (CwDb) also tend to have a wide range of other associated conditions such as learning difficulties, epilepsy, feeding problems, and other severe disabilities. In India, there are close to 780,000 People with Deafblindness (PwDb) who are most often overlooked by society.

Sense International India (SII), founded in 1997, is the first and only national level NGO that is dedicated towards working with PwDb throughout India by partnering with likeminded organizations that work with PwDb and other PwDs. As of date, SII has reached to over 78,000 PwDbs through 60 partners in 23 states of the country. It is evident that there are not many organizations that provide need-based services such as education, health, rehabilitation, and vocational training to PwDb. There is also a lack of awareness around deafblindness among the community, general public, policy-makers, development planners, and NGOs. Public Health systems at present are also not adequately equipped to identify and diagnose children who are at risk of deafblindness.

Sikkim Divyang Sahayata Samiti (SDSS) is a non-profit, secular, registered, charitable society established at Zero Point, Gangtok, Sikkim, India in 1999. The organization started under the inspiring leadership and vision of Ms. Droupadi Ghimiray (Padma Shree). SDSS works towards forming partnerships with people, communities, and resources so as to create opportunities which empower, enhance dignity, include, and lead to the security of health, nutrition, livelihoods and shelter in a sustainable manner. SDSS works with people in vulnerable situations especially PwDs, children, youth, and women living in extreme poverty, particularly those residing in remote rural areas. Sikkim Divyang Sahayata Samiti's strategy is to organize programs around disability which are inclusive, barrier free, and rights based, while using the Community Based Rehabilitation (CBR) approach. SDSS's main goal is to increase accessibility of PwDs so they can create sustainable livelihoods, especially among rural communities. SDSS does so through the application of appropriate technologies, promotion of micro-enterprises and an attitude of stewardship towards the earth, and finally by creating and joining networks for greater impact.

Therefore, the Sikkim State Level Online Sensitization Training of Deafblindness aimed to initiate services which included understanding deafblindness, sensory integration dysfunction and management of Children with Deafblindness' (CwDb) Needs of Early identification, screening and intervention of CwDb in Sikkim so that maximum children with deafblindness and multiple disabilities have access to Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE). There is a strong consensus among special educators and professionals who work in the field of Deafblindness that Early Identification and Intervention is a crucial factor in maximizing the potential for growth and development of CwDb. It can also increase the support provided to families and caregivers. It has been stated that to achieve this goal, a partnership needs to be developed between the child, the family, the professionals and other support networks.

Further, it has been identified that since around 70% of the total population of India resides in rural areas, the majority of children with disabilities are also found in rural areas due to lack of proper medical services or other reasons. Hence, the involvement of medical and paramedical professionals is of utmost importance for the formation of partnerships to promote initiatives aligned with Government priorities under the National Health Mission.

To achieve these aims and objectives through the online training, SDSS made prolific use of presentations, case studies, theoretical inputs and various audio-visual techniques as the methodology. In the end, via the virtual training, SDSS estimated to have created a collaboration of NGOs and the Government sector in providing services to children with deafblindness and multiple disabilities. It also aimed to increase the referrals of CwDb to the service provider and to generate greater awareness about CwDb and multiple disabilities in the community, health centres, the National Health Mission, hospitals and clinics.
